a few moments that seemed like they didn't really understand what I was asking them, I assumed it was because they are in Quebec my confusion was due to something being lost in translation between English and French. So we paid the $750 for them to do the assessment, but what we got back was an assessment for ME, and not my partner or kids. They totally ignored the fact that I am already a citizen.

When I tried to call their offices, the number didn't ever go through. So I had to email them and ask them to call me back. When they did, they said they will have to wait
