Diageo Canada Inc. offers a distribution service that stands out for its organization and efficiency, ensuring that all operations run smoothly. Located in Amherstburg, Ontario, this facility not only caters to the logistics of shipping but also prioritizes accessibility for all visitors.

Accessibility Features

The site boasts a wheelchair-accessible car park and a wheelchair-accessible entrance, making it easy for individuals with mobility challenges to access the facility. This commitment to inclusivity is crucial in ensuring that everyone can navigate the premises without hindrance.

Efficient Operations

Upon arrival at the Diageo distribution center, drivers are guided through a well-defined process:

Head to the truck marshalling area located on the left side of the entrance. Wait for the traffic light to turn green before proceeding. Check in at security where you will receive a list of rules and protocols. Ensure to adjust your tandems as instructed before entering through the gate. Complete the necessary paperwork before hitting the road. This process generally takes about an hour, although wait times may vary depending on the queue.

Feedback from Visitors

Experiences shared by visitors highlight both the positive aspects and areas for improvement:

Many appreciate the overall cleanliness and organization of the parking lot. Some drivers noted that security staff could be less accommodating, with remarks on their demeanor varying significantly. Newcomers are encouraged to familiarize themselves with the posted rules and procedures to ensure a smoother experience. While the majority of feedback points to an efficient process, there are mentions of occasional delays, especially during peak hours.
